GROUNDED AND CURED is a play-by-play recounting of USMC F/A-18 fighter pilot LtCol David Trombly's and his wife Megan's courageous story of learning about David's terminal cancer diagnosis, making the decision to find unconventional treatment, and discovering an unprecedented resolve to stay the course. In this book, you will learn what grounded them with "crisis peace" in not only a war to beat David's cancer, but also in a war to win back David's return to flight status.

Throughout the pages of GROUNDLED AND CURED, you will experience the emotionally-charged environment of a fighter pilot ready room as David and Megan navigate the unknowns of fighting cancer. While significantly drawing insight from their Christian faith, GROUNDLED AND CURED is written for ANYONE who finds herself or himself in a battle. As husband and wife share the vulnerable emotions yet tenacious mindsets of both patient and caregiver, you will gain valuable insight on the direction YOU should take for winning your own war.
